"Fourteenth of February, eighteen ninety-nine,
The British Ship Veronica was lost without a sign"

Am
Baa baa black sheep,
E
you haven't any wool.

Am Captain Richardson
C
left himself a lonely wife in Hull.

G Am E Am G C

C7
Cherub,
F Dm
I lost a ship in the Baltic sea.

G C
I'm on an iceberg running free.

C7
Sitting,
F Dm
filing this berg to the shape of a ship;

C
sailing my way back to your lips.

Dm
One passing ship gave word that

C
you have moved out of your old flat,

F Dm
you love the Vicar more than words can say.

G
Tell him to pray
C G Am F C Dm G

that I won't melt a way and I'll see your face again.

Am G F G Am G F C
O...des...sa, how strong am I?
Am G F G Ab Am G F C O...des...sa, how time goes by?

(C)

C7
Treasure,
F Dm
you know the neighbours that live next door,
G C
they haven't got their dog anymore.

C7
Freezing,
F Dm
sailing around in the North Atlantic,

C
can't seem to leave the sea anymore.

Dm
I just can't understand

C
why you just moved to Finland.

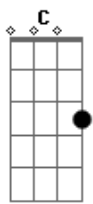

F Dm
You love that Vicar more than words can say.

G
Ask him to pray
C G Am F C Dm G
that I won't melt a way and I'll see your face again.
