

Beirut - Scenic World

Tom: D

D                    A                    Bm                    G
 the lights go on, the lights go off
D                    A                    Bm                    G
 when things don't feel right
D                    A                    Bm                    G
 I lie down like a tired dog
D                    A                    Bm                    G

licking his wounds in the shade

D   A Bm   G
 when I feel alive
D                    A                    Bm                    G
 I try to imagine a careless life
D                    A                    Bm                    G a scenic world where the sunsets are all
D A Bm G
 breathtaking
