

Bellamy Brothers - Slippin Away

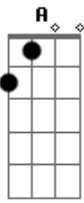

tom:
 E
 We're becoming strangers to each other A
 And I don't think there's anyone to blame B
 It somehow just got old like Whistler's mother A
 And the love we shared has seen its better day A E
 Slippin' away baby baby slippin' away now sweetie pie A E

E A E B
 It's sad to see it's slippin' but it ain't no use to cry
 Slippin' away baby baby slippin' away now sweetie pie A E
 E A E B A
 And once it gets to slippin' it's time to let it slide
 E A
 It ain't no use to sit and talk it over
 E B
 We both know there's nothing more to say
 E A
 The conversation just keeps getting colder
 E B A E
 Cause the love we shared has slowly slipped away
