 Intro: A E

[Primeira Parte]

A
 Anthony walked to his death
 Because he'd thought he'd never feel this way again
 A
 If he goes back to the house
 Then things would go from bad to worse what could he do?
 A
 He wants to remember things exactly as he left them on that funny day
 A
 And if there is something else beyond, he isn't scared because
 Gbm
 It's bound to be less boring than today
 A
 It's bound to be less boring than to-morrow
 (A E A)

E
 Hilary walked to her death because she couldn't think of anything
 To say
 E
 Everybody thought that she was boring, so they never listened
 A
 Anyway
 E
 Nobody was really saying anything of interest, she fell asleep
 E
 She was into S&M and bible studies
 Gbm
 Not everyone's cup of tea she would admit to me
 A
 Her cup of tea she would admit to no-one
 Gbm
 Her cup of tea she would admit to me
 A
 Her cup of tea she would admit to no-one
 (A E A)

E
 Hilary went to the catholic church because she wanted information
 E
 The vicar or whatever took her to one side and gave her
 A
 Confirmation
 E
 Saint Teresa's calling her, the church up on the hill is looking
 A
 Lovely
 E

But it doesn't interest, the only thing she wants to know is
 Gbm
 How and why and where to go
 A
 How and why and where to follow
 Gbm
 How and why and where to go
 A
 How and why and where to follow
 Gbm
 But if you are feeling sinister
 B
 Go off and see a minister
 A
 He'll try in vain to take away the pain of being a hopeless
 E
 Unbeliever
 A
 La la la la la la la
 E A

[Verse]

E
 When she got back her spirituality was thrown into confusion
 E
 So she got a special deal on renting from the man at Rediffusion
 E
 Look at me I'm on TV It makes up for the shortcomings of being poor
 E
 Now I'm in a million pieces picked up for deliberation
 Gbm
 By the people listening at home
 A
 By the people watching on the telly
 Gbm
 By the people listening at home
 A
 By the people watching on the telly
