

Belle And Sebastian - Im Waking Up To Us

Tom: E

I need someone to take some joy in something I do
 You need a man who's either rich, or losing a screw
 You know I love you here's the irony:
 You're going to walk away intact,
 I think you never loved me anyway
 You love yourself and you love men to kiss your arse, expensive clothes, please stop me there
 I think I'm waking up to us, we're a disaster
 You don't want to know me cause you move in Circles of the brave, where art defines their lives.
 Am E
 She was the one love of my life, and I let her go
 And if I look like death today, then please let her know
 I never wanted any harm for her,
 I only wanted her to see the beauty of the world surrounding her
 But when she opened up her eyes

B
 It's much too late, our chance is gone, she's with a guy
 Who takes the prize for everything I ever showed her
 Digging all the fun because she's older
 I fed her with a spoon, I made her mother smile,
 I helped the kid survive.

E Am E
 She was the one love of my life, she showed me the road
 I loved her dog, her steady gaze, the chapter is closed.
 B A
 I only wanted all the best for her, the best thing was to stay away
 E
 She grew up and she left the rest of us
 And now the understanding's gone
 B E B
 I haven't changed, how could I? I'm pretty much the same person
 E B E A B
 I cannot keep the anger hidden anymore, but lucky for you
 E A B E A B
 You are not around, my anger turns to pity and to love,
