

Belle And Sebastian - Is It Wicked Not To Care

Tom: Ab

Is it wicked not to care when they say that you're mistaken
Thinking hopes and lots of dreams that aren't there?

Is it wicked not to care when you've wasted many hours
Talking endlessly to anyone that's there?

I know the truth awaits me

But still I hesitate because of fear

Skipping tickets making rhymes, is that all that you believe in?

Wearing rags to make you pretty by design

Rusting armour for effect, it's not fun to watch the rust grow

For it will all be over when you're dead

(Bbm Bbm Eb) (2x)

Counting acts and clutching thoughts, by the river where the moss grows

Over rocks the water running all the time
Is it wicked when you smile, even though you feel like crying
Even though you could be sick at any time?

But if there was a sequel
Would you love me as an equal?
Would you love me until I'm dead?

(Ab Db Ab Db Ab Eb) (2xd)

If there was a sequel
Would you love me like an equal?
Would you love me until I'm dead?

If there was a sequel
Would you love me like an equal?
Would you love me until I'm dead?

Or is there someone else instead?
