

Belle And Sebastian - To Be Myself Completely

Tom: G

And to be myself completely I've just got to say goodbye

Well my heart has fallen down

Thought I'd talked myself around

But to be myself completely I've just got to let you down

Well I knew I'd say goodbye

Though it's not my time to cry

And forever and for no one I will let it all go by

Z-list star in a hundred grand garrett

The ladies say 'Hey baby, you've earned it!'

I'm not so sure, I toured the land

You could call it work if you count the band

Still your voice calls out to me

Escort me to the harmony

I'm not sure what I will be

Find me in a bitter sweet hello
