E B7
Wandering alone on the ridge of the coast
E B7
Lost to the world he had known as a boy
E A B7 E B7
He knows his lover lies south in the city
E B7
Passing along and as sleepy as night
E B7
Warm in the woods that conceal him from light
E A B7 E E7
He is accustomed to hiding from people

A
Taking his time as he crosses the bridge

Holding the flowers he picked from the ridge
Dm D7M Bm B7
Walking in shadows to his senorita

E B7
Safe in the dawn he rests under the sheets
E B7
His senorita a heavenly sweet
E A B7 E E7
Soul that was put there to save and protect him

( E B7 E B7 E A B7 E ) (2x)

( E7 )

A
He knows that time can not endlessly go
Traps will be set by the people below
Dm D7M Bm B7
She will be caught too and he could not bear it

E B7
Hope in the freedom he can almost touch
E B7
Folk take for granted as they walk to church
E A B7 E B7
He says his prayers and god listens to him

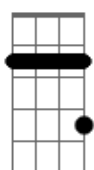

E B7
Sir all I want is a chance to amend
E B7
Past infidelities please do not send

E A B7
Me far away from my wise
E A B7
Me far away from my wise
E A B7
Me far away from my wise

senorita
