

Ben & Tan - Yes

tom:

Intro: Em C2 G

I was six feet under for the one and only
 Spent the nights feeling bitter, sad and lonely
 Didn't realize how much fear controlled me
 Until you came and loved me like I'm holy
 Now I'm ready to give life one more chance

Think my heart is beating me to death
 I have got an arrow through my chest
 I am so in love, I must confess
 Say yes, say yes, say yes

Think my heart is beating me to death
 I have got an arrow through my chest
 I am so in love, I must confess
 Say yes, say yes

 Oooooooooooh
 C D Em
 Oooooooooooh
 C D G
 Oooooooooooh

Never thought I would be high on life but sober
 Didn't think that I'd be able to turn this over
 Let's make stories to talk about when we're older
 Come and rest your pretty head upon my shoulder
 Now I'm ready to give life one more chance

Think my heart is beating me to death
 I have got an arrow through my chest
 I am so in love, I must confess
 Say yes, say yes, say yes
