

Ben Fankhauser - To Kiss a Girl

tom:

Oh, I?m no explorer
 My visions not great
 I get tired when I run for too long
 I still wake up groggy
 And go to bed late
 And I guess it?s been true all along

That of all the worlds secrets
 Both this world and yours
 From the depths of the sea
 To the eagle who soars
 Far beyond all the crap
 That us little guys face each da_____y

Past monsters and prophecies
 Shouldn?t?s and should?s
 Past mayors and nights getting lost in the woods
 I know it?s not much
 I?m too young to unearh how it go_____es

But whether the sun burns our skin
 Or a westward breeze blo_____ws
 Of all the worlds secrets and mysteries
 From here to the tiniest star
 The greatest one
 Is the simplest one by far

To kiss a girl
 And hold her hand
 No monster in the land can understand when
 You kiss a girl
 And just like that
 The stars you?re staring at start to disband
 Then, they form a path
 And if you follow them blindly
 That?s where you?ll find she?s gone
 So kiss the girl
 And hold her hand
 And travel on

Sometimes I think
 When days grow lame
 And each night ends the same
 In this ghost town
 Men, feel far too weak
 To make it through
 But boy there?s work to do so hunker down
 Then, we?ll form a pact
 And with bravado and soul
 Ease up on the holy snare
 She?s just a girl
 And you?ve a hand to ta___ke her there

Cowards by the dozens
 Fly in spirals and they?re fast
 Running like they?re cowards
 From the future toward the past
 Never have I ever
 Seen such cowards stand to last
 But who cares?
 Who really cares?
 When you kiss a girl!
 Ahhh

Oh I?m no explorer
 My visions not great

To kiss a girl
 No monster in the land can understand
 And travel
 On
