

Ben Gibbard - Frightening Fishes

tom:

Intro: C Dm Am F

C Am
These days, I've been barely holding on Em F C
Climbing the walls every dusk till dawn
Am Em
Fearing the future, mourning the past
F Am
The hours moving slowly, then vanishing fast

Am F Am
But I'm trying in my way to concede
F
And to tell you just what I need

C Dm F
Help me carry this weight that's dragging me down
C Dm F
Pull me out of the drink before I start to drown
C Dm F Am
Let the wreckage all sink to where the fishes are frightening
F Am
I wanna hear myself think again
F F
I wanna hear myself think again

C Am Em
For so long I've been turning into the skid
F C
And waltzing away from the damage I did

Am Em
I'd brush off my shoulders and tuck in my shirt
F Am
And flee from the scene before I knew who'd been hurt

F Am
But I've been trying my best to concede
E7 Am
To cease to take, just receive
F F
'Cause there's more than your love that I need, that I need

C Dm F
Help me carry this weight, that's dragging me down
C Dm F
Pull me out of the drink before I start to drown
C Dm F Am
Let the wreckage all sink to where the fishes are frightening
F C
I wanna hear myself think again

C Dm F
Help me carry this weight that's dragging me down
C Dm F
Pull me out of the drink before I start to drown
C Dm F Am
Let the wreckage all sink to where the fishes are frightening
F Am
I wanna hear myself think again
F F
I wanna hear myself think again
C
Think again

Acordes

