

Ben Harper - Ground On Down

Tom: C

#

Date: Thu, 20 Nov 1997 16:22:40 -0800 (PST)
From: ian lindsay

Transcription by
>From the album Fight For Your Mind
Ben plays this one on a Weissenborn it's a kind of lap steel with a hollow neck, no frets and built in Koa wood in the twenties by Henry Weissenborn.

Tuning open C e no change
B up to C
G no change
D down to C
A down to G
E down to C

The song stands on one riff with slight variations every time you'll have to listen to the record to catch them :

Lyrics:

I believe in a few things
God the devil and love
'cause I've looked up from the bottom and I've stared down from above

I have faith in a few things divinity and grace
but even when I'm on my knees
I know the devil prays

and you're working your way
from the ground on down

I hate to say I love you because it means that I will be with you forever

or will sadly say goodbye

I love to say I hate you because it means that I will live my life happily without you or will sadly live a lie

and you're working your way
from the ground on down

life is short and if your lookin' for extension with your time
you had best do well

'cause there's good deeds and there's good intention they're as far apart
as heaven and hell

and you're working you're way
from the ground on down

Intro:

(slow slide)

(the X are muffled by the left hand at the top of the neck just over the first fret and the rhythm is like Led Zep's Moby Dick)
SOLO:

That's all. for just now.
"Float with me to distant lands,
wondrous and fair."

Get Your Private, Free Email at <http://>

Acordes

