Black flies on the windowsill, That we are, That we are

Winter stole summer's thrill

See the sky is no man's land

Ab
A darkened plume to stay

Hope here needs a humble hand

Ab
Not a fox found in your place

And no man is an island, oh this I know

Maybe you were the ocean, when I was just a stone

[Segunda Parte]

Ab Cm
Black flies on the windowsill, That we are, That we are

And every story must grow old

Still I'll be a traveller

A gypsy's reins to face

But the road is wearier

With that fool found in your place

(Cm Ab)
