

Benjamin William Hastings - Still See You In It

tom:

[Primeira Parte]

I still see You in it
 Though I squint through some years of hurt
 And there's some good presbyters
 Some parts insincere
 And a whole lot that makes me squirm

[Segunda Parte]

But I still see You in it
 Though it don't always seem overt
 Those divine profiteers
 With perfect veneers
 And somehow You use their words

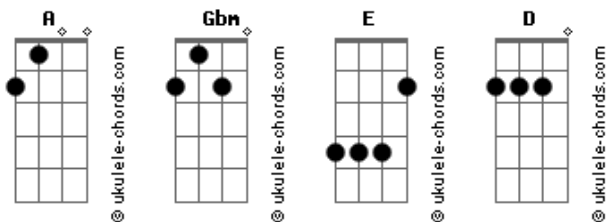

[Refrão 1]

I've been blessed and I been cursed
 I've been healed and I been hurt
 But for better or for worse
 I'm still here singing
 I've been lost and I've been found
 I've been raised up and knocked back
 Down
 Probably should have left by now
 Thank God I didn't
 Cause I still see You in it

[Terceira Parte]

In the searcher who finds a seat
 And every grandma in the kitchen
 And the parking assistants

Acordes

And Francis the volunteer

[Quarta Parte]

I still see You in it
 In the hours spent behind the scenes
 And every pastor who's seeking and Praying in secret
 Just hoping for one to believe, singing

[Refrão 2]

I've been blessed and I've been cursed
 I've been healed and I've been hurt
 But for better or for worse
 I'm still here singing
 I've had sermons make me cry
 Seen bad men saved and best friends fired
 Kinda lost my appetite
 There for a minute
 But I still see You in it

(Gbm E A D A)
 (D E Gbm E E)
 (Gbm E A D A)

[Refrão 3]

I've been blessed and I been cursed
 I've been healed and I been hurt
 But for better or for worse
 I'm still here singing
 I've heard truth, and I've heard lies
 Had the wool cover both my eyes
 Seen the best and worst entwined
 Both bride and business
 But I still see You in it
