

Bethel Music - Ring And Robe (feat. Dante Bowe & Naomi Raine)

tom:

Gb

This may be a song that the captives
 Can't yet sing
 But if we sing long enough
 They might join in with us
 And this may be a dance
 That's too heavy for those chains
 But if we dance long enough
 Well the prisons will open up
Gb
 This may be a shout
 That those fragile lungs can't bear
 But if we shout long enough
 Oh the walls might finally fall
 And they may need some help
 To lift their hands up in the air
 But we know that freedom's coming
 So we'll sing it all the more
 (Ebm B Gb Gb Bbm)

Ebm
 Oh-oh-oh

B
 The redeemed now have a song
Gb
 We'll sing it all day long
Gb Db
 Until the rest come running home

Ebm
 Oh-oh-oh

 All the broken, can you hear

Gb
 We'll shout it out forever
Gb Bbm
 Can't wait till you make it here
 (Ebm B Gb Bbm Gb)

This may be too daring
 Of a prayer to pray out loud
 But would You send those orphans home
 We've been waiting all day long
 Oh, a ring and a robe is ready
 We can see them coming now
 Just like the prodigal
 We're gonna meet them in the road

Gb
 Strongholds start to break
 At the sound of our voices
 At the sound of our praise
 Mountains get out of our way
 Can't you see us dancing
 There's no room for you to stay
 Oh, we can see them coming now
 All the broken and weary
 He didn't leave you where He found you
 Welcome home
 Welcome home
 Welcome home, welcome home
