

Betty Carter - Imagination

```
You go around willynilly Dm
Tom: F
                                                               Dm Dm7 Dm7 Dm Bb G
For example, I go around wanting you
Intro: C Gdim Dm7 Bb A7 G7 Fdim C Cdim Dm Fdim C
                                                                        Dm7 Bb A7 G7 Fdim C Cdim Dm Fdim C
       C Gdim
                 Dm7 G7
                                                               And yet I can't imagine that you want me, too
                                      G7/13-
                                               Gdim
Imagination is funny it makes a cloudy day sunny
Dm Dm7 Dm7 Dm Gdim A7 Fdim G7
Makes a bee think of honey, just as I think of you
C Gdim Dm7 G7 C G7/13- GG
                                                               Interlude: G7 C Gdim Dm7 G7 C G7/13- Gdim A7 Dm Dm7 Dm7 Dm
                                                               Gdim A7 Fdim G7 C Gdim Dm7 G7 C G7/13- Gdim A7 Dm Dm7 Dm7
                                                               Dm C7M Am Gm7 C7
                                                          Gdim E F Dm7
                                                                                    Cdim B7
                                                               Have you ever felt a gentle touch your whole perspective gets
                                                                Em7 A7 G A7
Imagination is crazy,
                                                               And then a kiss, and then, and then hazy
                              C7M Am
                Dm7 Dm
                                                 Gm7 C7
         Dm7
                                                                 Em7 Am7 Cdim
                                                                                                                G7/13-
                                                               Find it's only your imagination
                                            what to do
                                                                                                   again? Oh, well
Starts you asking a daisy what to do,
                                                               G7 C Gdim Dm7 G7 Imagination is silly
        Dm7
                   Cdim B7
                                                                 C G7/13-
Have you ever felt a gentle touch
 Ém7 A7 Ġ A7
                                                                                      Gdim A7
And then a kiss, and then, and then
Em7 Am7 Cdim G
                                                               You go around willynilly
Dm Dm7 Dm7 Dm Bb Gdim
For example, I go around wanting you
                                         G7/13-
Find it's only your imagination again, oh, well
G7 C Gdim Dm7 G7
Imagination is sill
                                                                     Dm7 Bb A7 G7 Fdim
                                                                                                      C Cdim Dm Fdim C
                                                               And yet I can't imagine that you want me, too
    C G7/13-
                       Gdim A7
```

Acordes

