

Betty Carter - Look No Further

Tom: G

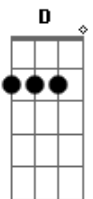

G D Em
 I might have been a singer who sailed around the world
 G D Em
 A gambler who wins millions and spent it all on girls
 Am
 I might have been a poet who walked upon the moon
 Am
 A scientist who would tell the world
 D
 I discovered something new
 G D Em
 I might have loved a king been the one to end a war
 G D Em
 A criminal who drinks champagne and never could be caught
 Am
 But among your books
 D Am
 Among your clothes, among the noise and fuss
 I've let it go
 Em C G
 I can't stop and catch my breath

Em C G D
 And look no further, for happiness
 Em C G D
 And I will not turn again
 Em C G
 Cause my heart, has found it's home
 G D Em
 D Everyone I'll never meet and the friends I won't now make
 G D
 The adventures that there could have been
 Em D
 And the risks I'll never take
 Am
 But among your books
 D Am
 Among your clothes, among the noise and fuss
 I've let it go
 Em C G
 I can't stop and catch my breath
 Em C G D
 And look no further, for happiness
 Em C G D
 And I will not turn again
 Em C G
 Cause my heart, has found it's home
