

Beyoncé - Forever To Bleed

I couldn't see but now I know
                                                         Bb Eb
That I acted selfishly

              Eb
Intro: Cm Ab Bb Eb
                                                                 Cm
 Cm Ab Bb Eb
                                                         I should've known that I let you down
                                                            Bb Eb
                                                         Caused you so much misery
         Cm
You're all alone, and I did this
                                                                 Cm Ab
                                                         Forever to bleed
 Bb Eb
I got no one else to blame
                                                                 Bb Eb
                                                         Forever to bleed
  Cm Ab
You didn't know I was a risk
                                                                  Cm Ab
   Bb Ab
                                                         Forever to bleed
And it's such a crying shame
                                                                 Bb Eb
                                                         Forever to bleed
How you gave me all of you
                                                                   Cm
     Bb Eb
                                                         I should've been there
And wanted nothing else from me
                                                                 Bb Eb
Cm Ab
But to make some time for you
Bb Eb
But all I made you was lonely
                                                         I should've been there
                                                                 Cm Ab
                                                         I should've been there
                                                                 Bb Eb
                                                         I should've been there
I couldn't see but now I know
Bb Eb
That I acted selfishly
                                                         I'm filled with regret, I'm gonna tip
                                                                 Gm
                                                         And soak myself in misery
      Cm
I should've known that I let you down
                                                         Now in your life I'll take more time
   Bb Eb
Caused you so much misery
                                                             Gm
                                                         No more yearning without me
        Cm Ab
Forever to bleed
        Bb Eb
                                                         But it hurts to think of you
Forever to bleed
         Cm Ab
                                                             Cm
                                                         All by yourself and now I see
Forever to bleed
        Bb Eb
                                                          Fm Gm
Forever to bleed
                                                         And I apologize for all the times
                                                            Ab Eb
          Cm
I should've been there
        Bb Eb
I should've been there
                                                         I couldn't see but now I know
        Cm Ab
                                                           Bb Eb
I should've been there
                                                         That I acted selfishly
                                                                 Cm
        Bb Eb
I should've been there
                                                         I should've known that I let you down
                                                              Bb Eb
                                                         Caused you so much misery
All of the times you used to cry

Bb

Because I would let you down
                                                                 Cm Ab
                                                         Forever to bleed
                                                                 Bb Eb
Cm Ab
I'm losing time, I should've tried
                                                         Forever to bleed
                                                                Cm Ab
Bb Eb
A little more to be around
                                                         Forever to bleed
                                                                Bb Eb
                                                         Forever to bleed
But I didn't know you that were hurting
Bb Eb
                                                         I'm gonna be there
I was just too blind
                                                               Bb Eb
                                                         I'm gonna be there
Only thing I know for certain
Bb Eb
                                                            Cm Ab
                                                         I'm gonna be there
Another you I'll never find
                                                               Bb Eb
                                                         I'm gonna be there
