

Bia Haga - Broken In Pieces

Tom: G

So I see
You're missing her
And you do
Have reasons for this

But I guess
She left you because
Of the way you were
Treating her

Baby, you
Should listen to me for a second
You
Won't get her back

If you don't realize
You should have listened her
And that she is broken in pieces now
I don't know if you can fix it all
'Cause now she is foiled with the whole world around her

I know you miss her that much
But forgiving is hard
You're not worth it

I know you miss her that much

But forgiving is hard
You're not worth it

So I see
You're blaming her
For not wanting to stay

But she was already gone
You let her go away

Baby, you
Should listen to me for a second
You
Won't get her back

If you don't realize
You should have listened her
And that she is broken in pieces now
I don't know if you can fix it all
'Cause now she is foiled with the whole world around her

I know you miss her that much
But forgiving is hard
You're not worth it

I know you miss her that much
But forgiving is hard
You're not worth it
