

Bill Wurtz - Mount St. Helens Is About To Blow Up

tom:
 G
 Mount St. Helens is about to blow up
 And it's gonna be a fine, swell day
 Everything's gonna fall down to the ground and turn grey
 All of my friends, family, and animals
 Are probably going to run away
 But me, I'm feeling curious, so I think I just might stay
 G
 The Dow Jones just fell down to zero
 And it's gonna be a fine, swell day
 And I wonder if it's gonna be as good a day as yesterday
 All of these business suits that I've just purchased
 Gonna have to throw them all away
 And slip into something more reasonable and then dance the night
 Away
 I'm riding a pony
 Into the sunset
 Everything's green and gold
 So I'm not in hell yet
 And the people who work in my office went on vacation
 'Cause they say that I haven't been paying them very much anymore

Mount St. Helens has a pretty cool gift shop
 And I haven't been there in a while
 And I've been wondering if it's even still there?
 And the climate has been changing
 And soon it's gonna change more
 And we'll figure out all of the details in climate change court
 Take a ride on my blimp
 Oh, it's a very strong blimp
 You can watch movies and play games
 While riding on it
 When the sun goes down and the sky burns out
 We'll never slow down
 Oh, we're not going down
 Mount St. Helens is feeling crazy and adventurous
 That's the reason that it's so special
 And it takes no answers
 And it gives no questions
 And it makes no excuses
 And it really doesn't listen
 And it seems so eccentric
 And it looks so active
 And it dreams of puppies
 And it's filled with music
