

Billie Eilish - Getting Older

```
Someday, I'll be bored of
                             tom:
                Db (forma dos acordes no tom de Bb )
Capostraste na 3ª casa
                                                                   That we care so much, until we don't
Intro: G D Em7 G Cadd9
                                                                   [Segunda Parte]
I'm gettin' older, I think I'm agin' well
                                                                   I'm gettin' older
                   Fm7
I wish someone had told me
                                                                   I've got more on my shoulders
I'd be doin' this by myself
                                                                                  Em
                                                                   But I'm gettin' better at admitting
There's reasons that I'm thankful
                                                                   When I'm wrong
There's a lot I'm grateful for
                                                                   I'm happier than ever
But it's different when a stranger is
                                                                  At least, that's my endeavor
                  Cadd9
Always waitin' at your door
                                                                   To keep myself together and prioritize my pleasure
Which is ironic, 'cause the strangers seem to
                                                                   'Cause to be honest
                                                                   I just wished the word I promised
Than anyone before (anyone before)
                                                                   Would depend on what I'm givin'
Too bad they're usually deranged
                                                                   (not on his permission)
                                                                   (Wasn't my decision)
Last week, I realized I crave pity
                                                                         Cm
When I re-tell a story
                                                                   To be abused, hmm
I make everything sound worse
                                                                   [Refrão]
Can't shake the feeling
                                                                      Things I once enjoyed
That I'm just bad at healing
                                                                     Just keep me employed now, mm
                    Fm
And maybe that's the reason every sentence
                                                                      Things I'm longing for
                                                                       D C
Someday, I'll be bored of
Sounds rehearsed
Which is ironic, because when I wasn't honest
                                                                               \mathsf{Am}
G
I was still bein' ignored
                                                                   That we care so much, until we don't
    F Em
                                                                   [Final]
(lyin' for attention, just to get neglection)
                                                                  But next week, I hope I'm somewhere laughin' \stackrel{Em}{\qquad} G \qquad \stackrel{C}{\qquad} C For anybody asking, I promise I'll be fine
Now we're estranged
[Refrão]
                                                                   I've had some trauma, did things I didn't wanna
  Things I once enjoyed
                                                                   Was too afraid to tell ya
  Just keep me employed now
                                                                   But now, I think it's time
                    Bm
  Things I'm longing for
Acordes
    C7M
```

