

Billie Eilish - Not My Responsibility

tom:
 Capotraste na 4ª casa
 Intro: Am Em Am Em Am

Em
 Do you know me?
 Really know me?
 You have opinions about my opinions
 Am
 About my music
 Em
 About my clothes
 About my body
 Am
 Some people hate what I wear
 Some people praise it
 Em
 Some people use it to shame others
 Some people use it to shame me
 Am
 But I feel you watching
 Always
 Em
 And nothing I do goes unseen
 So while I feel your stares, your disapproval
 Am
 Or your sigh of relief
 If I lived by them, I'd never be able to move
 Em
 Would you like me to be smaller

Acordes

Weaker, softer, taller?
 Am
 Would you like me to be quiet?
 Do my shoulders provoke you? Does my chest?
 Em
 Am I my stomach? My hips?
 The body I was born with
 Am
 Is it not what you wanted?
 Em
 If I wear what is comfortable, I am not a woman
 Am
 If I shed the layers, I'm a slut
 Though you've never seen my body
 Em
 You still judge it
 And judge me for it
 Am
 Why?
 We make assumptions about people
 Based on their size
 Em
 We decide who they are
 We decide what they're worth
 Am
 If I wear more, if I wear less
 Who decides what that makes me, what that means?
 Em
 Is my value based only on your perception?
 Or is your opinion of me not my responsibility?
