Billie Holiday - Lady Day

Tom: C

    Intro:  Am Am7 Dm G7 C7M   Am E7-

     Am      Fdim      G        G
Her day was born in shades of blue
     C7M              Am
Her song was sad the words were true
     D       Dm      G        G
Her morning came too fast too soon
   C7M                Am
And died before the afternoon
     G   Cdim Dm Gdim  G7  G   C7M       Am
Poor lady  day could use some love, some sunshine
Dm  Dm7 Dm7  G  Fdim  C7M
Lady day has too much rain
     G   Cdim Dm Gdim  G7  G   C7M        Am
Poor lady  day could use some spring, some breezes
Dm  Dm7 Dm7  G  Fdim  C7M
Lady day has too much pain
     Am      Am7   Dm  G7               C7M   Am
It's such a lonely face,   it's such a cloudy sky
```

Dm       G     Fdim G7   Am    Am7
So many shadows in  her eye
    Am   Am7    Dm   G7                C7M   Am
So many empty dreams,   so many bitter times,
         Dm       Fdim    Am
Just a handful of broken rhymes.
     G   Cdim Dm  Gdim  G7  G  C7M       Am
Poor lady  day could use a smile, some kindness
Dm  Dm7 Dm7  G  Fdim  C7M
Lady day has too much rain
     G   Cdim Dm  Gdim  G7  G   C7M          Am
Poor lady  day could use some dreams, some flowers
Dm  Dm7 Dm7  G  Fdim  C7M
Lady day has too much pain
     Am      Am7   Dm  G7               C7M   Am
Just too much to say,   just to much to know
        Dm    G   Fdim  G7      Am    Am7
Too little time to  say, "Hello"
     Am      Am7    Dm  G7                  C7M   Am
And then the evening comes,   and now she doesn't cry
       Am7    Dm    Fdim        Am
And it's too late to say, "Goodbye"
