

Billy Lockett - Who I Am

```
Tom: E
                                                                How long do I have to wait till I'm ready
                                                                To open my heart \underset{-}{\mathsf{up}} to somebody new I'm not looking for them
How long do I have to pretend that it's for the best
                                                                I'm looking for you
Till I call you up screaming forgive and forget about it
Forget about it
                                                                Maybe I'll be okay in a week or a year
                                                                I don't want you to feel bad for what you left here
They say time is a healer but I keep getting weaker
                                                                          Gbm
                                                                You can't help who you love
I know that you're over and I should be too but I can't forget
                                                                And who you lose
Forget about it
                                                                [Refrão]
[Refrão]
                                                                             A Dbm A
                                                                Cuz I'm not letting go
            A Dbm A
Cuz I'm not letting go
                                                                Of who I am
Of who I am
                                                                And what we were
And what we were
                                                                             Dbm A
         A Dbm A
                                                                No, I'm not letting go
No, I'm not letting go
                                                                        Е
                                                                Of who I am
        F
Of who I am
                                                                And what we were
And what we were
And where will be
                                                                How long do I have to pretend that it's for the best
( E )
                                                                Till I call you up screaming forgive and forget about it
                                                                Forget about us
Acordes
```

