

Birdy - Older

Tom: E

I wish that I was older old enough to be yours Hmm...

And I wish that I was wiser
 Wise enough to be strong-minded
 To keep up with the words you say, it makes me feel so young ooooh

And I don't know where this is going
 I just been hoping
 And I can see by your smile that you're glowing
 Inside out
 Let's not pretend like it's not what it is when I just started to realize
 That I love you
 Oooh

And I wish that we were strangers Strange enough to go unnoticed from this crowd
 And I wish that we were closer

Close enough for me to hold you
 When you're alone and nights become to long to bare
 And I don't know where this is going
 I just been hoping
 And I can see by your smile that you're glowing
 Inside out
 Let's not pretend like it's not what it is
 when I just started to realize
 That I love you
 Oooh

You hold your head up high though it's hard to... Oooh
 I can't keep back I know I just want you... Oooh
 And I don't know where this is going
 I just been hoping
 And I can see by your smile that you're glowing
 Inside out
 Let's not pretend like it's not what it is
 when I just started to realize
 That I love you
 Oooh
