

Birdy - The Same

Tom: D

Intro: 2x: D G Bm A

I've tried to be fair
 And pretend like I care
 But no asset is worth all the time
 Spent listening and laughing
 To dramas that mean nothing
 Can't find any depth to these minds

Purity lost in vain
 And you think I should be the same?

Don't assume I will follow
 And drop all my morals
 So you can look good for the crowd
 You don't care about my thoughts
 Just the light that I brought
 I'm tired of helping you out

They chose to be blind
 When lonely and shy
 I searched for acceptance at first
 Said the traits didn't match
 Now you take it all back
 When it adds something more to your worth

Purity lost in vain
 And you think I should be the same?

Don't assume I will follow
 And drop all my morals
 So you can look good for the crowd
 You don't care about my thoughts
 Just the light that I brought
 I'm tired of helping you out

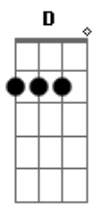

All this time you chose never to care
 But now you won't leave me alone
 Like we've always been close
 I'm telling you nothing has changed

Purity lost in vain
 And you think I should be the same?

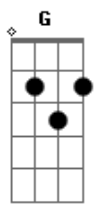

Don't assume I will follow
 And drop all my morals
 So you can look good for the crowd
 You don't care for my thoughts
 Just the light that I brought
 I'm tired of helping you out

You think I should be the same
