

B.J. Thomas - No Love at All

tom:

Intro: F C G F C

[Primeira Parte]

G
You read in the paper nearly every day
People breakin up and just walking away
F C
From love and that wrong, that so wrong
G
A happy little home comes up for sale
Because two fools have tried and failed
F C
To get along, and ya know that wrong

[Segunda Parte]

C
A man hurts a woman and woman hurts a man
Am G
When neither one of them will love and understand
D
And take it with a grain of salt

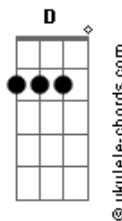

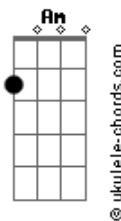

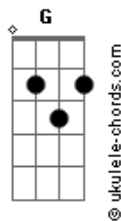

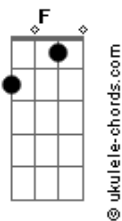

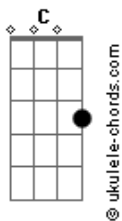

[Refrão]

D
Oh, now believe that
G
A little bit of love, is better than no love
C
Even a bad love is better than no love
D C G
And even a sad love is better than no love at all
C D
Got to believe that
G
A little bit of love is better than no love
C
Even a bad love is better than no love
D C G
And any kind of love, is better than no love at all
F C G F C
Nah, nah, nah

[Terceira Parte]

G
No love at all is a poor old man

Acordes

Standing on the corner with his hat in his hand
F C
And no place to go, he's feelin low
G
No love at all is a child in the street
Dodgin traffic and begging to eat
F C
On a tenement row and that so rough row to hoe
No love at all is troubled young girl
Am G
Standing on a bridge at the end of the world
D
And it's a pretty short fall, now people believe it

[Refrão]

G
A little bit of love is better than no love
C
Even a bad love is better than no love
D C G
And even the sad love is better than no love at all
C D
Got to believe that
G
A little bit of love is better than no love
C
Even a bad love is better than no love
D C G
And any kind of love is better than no love at all
F C G F C
Nah, nah, nah Oh I got to believe

[Refrão]

G
A little bit of love is better than no love
C
Even a bad love is better than no love
D C G
And even the sad love is better than no love at all
C D
Got to believe that
G
A little bit of love is better than no love
C
Even a bad love is better than no love
D C G
And any kind of love is better than no love at all
F C G F C
Nah, nah, nah Oh I got to believe