

B.J. Thomas - No Love at All

tom:

Intro: F C G F C

[Primeira Parte]

^G
You read in the paper nearly every day
People breakin up and just walking away
^F From love and that wrong, that so wrong ^C
^G
A happy little home comes up for sale
Because two fools have tried and failed
^F To get along, and ya know that wrong ^C

[Segunda Parte]

^C
A man hurts a woman and woman hurts a man
^{Am} When neither one of them will love and understand ^G
And take it with a grain of salt ^D

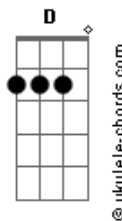

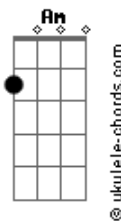

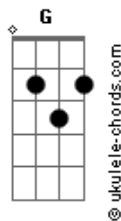

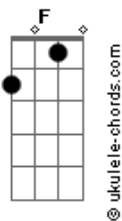

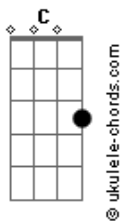

[Refrão]

^D
Oh, now believe that
^G
A little bit of love, is better than no love
^C
Even a bad love is better than no love
^D ^C ^G
And even a sad love is better than no love at all
^C ^D
Got to believe that
^G
A little bit of love is better than no love
^C
Even a bad love is better than no love
^D ^C ^G
And any kind of love, is better than no love at all
^F ^C ^G ^F ^C
Nah, nah, nah

[Terceira Parte]

^G
No love at all is a poor old man

Acordes

Standing on the corner with his hat in his hand

^F And no place to go, he's feelin low ^C

^G
No love at all is a child in the street

Dodgin traffic and begging to eat

^F On a tenement row and that so rough row to hoe ^C

No love at all is troubled young girl

^{Am} Standing on a bridge at the end of the world ^G

^D
And it's a pretty short fall, now people believe it

[Refrão]

^G
A little bit of love is better than no love ^C

Even a bad love is better than no love

^D ^C ^G
And even the sad love is better than no love at all

^C ^D
Got to believe that

^G
A little bit of love is better than no love ^C

Even a bad love is better than no love

^D ^C ^G
And any kind of love is better than no love at all

^F ^C ^G ^F ^C
Nah, nah, nah Oh I got to believe

[Refrão]

^G
A little bit of love is better than no love ^C

Even a bad love is better than no love

^D ^C ^G
And even the sad love is better than no love at all

^C ^D
Got to believe that

^G
A little bit of love is better than no love ^C

Even a bad love is better than no love

^D ^C ^G
And any kind of love is better than no love at all

^F ^C ^G ^F ^C
Nah, nah, nah Oh I got to believe