(repetem-se os acordes até o fim)

My romantic gene is dominant
 And it hungers for union
 Universal intimacy
 All embracing
 May I, should I or have I too often
 Craved miracles
 May I, can I or have I too often
 Craved miracles
 Crave
 Waves irregularly striking
 Wind stern in my face
 Thunderstorm come
 Scrape these barnacles off me!
 May I, may I or should I too often
 Crave miracles
 May I or should I or have I too often
 All my body parts are one
 As lightning hits my spine
 Sparkling
 Prime runs through me
 Revive my wish
 Inviolable
 May I, can I or have I too often
 Craving miracles
 May I, can I, should I or have I too often
 Craving miracles
