Tonight my babe blew me down

Tonight my babe blew me down

She said I'm not her dog anymore

And I've got to leave the town

Rolling and stoned in the mud

I'm rolling and stoned in the mud

I see the Moonlight on the River

It looks like her

And I've cried so loud that I've woken

Every mutt lying down the streets

And we fought so hard that some were hurt

There was blood in every teeth

As were blind, we were guiding

Slowly moving to far away

And the moonlight on the river?
