Where I'll never know
                                                         Am Am F
For I can't be tied down

                                                                    F
 Am Am D E E E
                                                          I can hear it call
I've left the past behind
E E E Am
                                                         Take me through this world
So much more to see
                                                          Take me through this storm
