Lyrics:

The neon lights are shinging on me again
I walk the lonely streets in search of a friend
I need a lady to help to get through the night
If I could find one then everything would be alright

The sleepy city is dreaming the night time away
Out on the streets I watch tomorrow becoming today
I see a man he's got take away women for sale
Yes for sale
Guess that's the answer
'Cos take away women don't fail

Oh dirty women, they don't mess around
Oh dirty women, they don't mess around
You got me coming
You got me going around
Oh dirty women, they don't mess around

Walking the streets I wonder will it ever happen
Gotta be good then everything will be o.k.
If I score tonight then I will end up happy
A woman for sale is gonna help me save my day
