Black Sabbath - Solitude

Tom: C

   Okay, here's all of Black Sabbath's Solitude -- except bass and flute, but I've got the lyrics here. A really easy song to play, slow and beautiful, too.
For the last verse play the G and F chords that are shown in the last bar of the second interlude, everywhere else it's the chords shown in the intro (including most of the end).
It's in 6/8 time, and I tried to tab it accordingly, but some hammers, pulls, slides, and 16th-notes kind of messed it up; but other than that,
the timing's pretty accurate (-- = 1 8th-note).

KEY:
```

6h9  Hammer on note
9p6  Pull-off note
6s9  Slide to note
/ \  Slide up to/down from infinity
6b9  Bend to note
9r6  Release to note

     Hold bend
~~   Tremolo

There ya go.
And now a request: does anyone at all have Silvergun Superman, by the
