

Blackfield - Zigota

Tom: Bb

Don't you fight, don't you fight
 When your death is calling for a ride
 Close your eyes, close your eyes
 You won't suffer there above the clouds
 Don't you know there's only one way out?
 And it comes when it comes
 When it's time
 For sharing some tears
 And forget in a minute why

The reason they cried
 One direction with no turning back
 Soon it will turn to black, soon it will turn to black
 Soon you'll find, soon you'll find
 Today is just the future of the past
 Don't you cry, don't you cry
 You are just an accident of stars
 One direction with no turning back
 Soon it will turn to black, soon it will turn to black
 One direction with no turning back
 Soon it will turn to black, soon it will burn to black
 Don't you fight, don't you fight
 When your death is calling for a ride
