

Blackmore's Night - Sake Of The Song

Tom: D

The moon must be an angel,
 Her halo surely heaven sent
 Watching from above should the bells forget to ring

And we but lonely travelers
 Following a ray of light
 All become the same when we begin to sing

Round and round we all go,
 Where we stop nobody knows,
 Heaven meets on the earth
 For the sake of the song...

Could you ever fly without the fear of falling
 Does the songbird cease just because its dawn
 Could a candle burn with any less resilience

Should we never love for the fear that it may fade?

Round and round we all go,
 Where we stop nobody knows,
 Heaven meets on the earth
 For the sake of the song...

Could you ever be just for the sake of being
 Could a melody ever be wrong
 Could you ever sing just for the sake of singing
 Set your spirit free

Round and round we all go,
 Where we stop nobody knows,
 Heaven meets on the earth
 For the sake of the song...

For the sake of the song...
