Blanca Callahan - Catching Fire

You could be the coldest star
You could be a work of art
You could be a diamond undiscovered in the dark
You could be the mystery
That?ll change history
You could be that buried treasure
Don?t be afraid to show them who you are
           Am
This is the moment you?ve been waiting for
You, you?re catching fire
I can see it in your eyes
Just a spark, it will ignite you
You?re catching fire
Like a flame inside the night
Light it up, you?re burning bright
You..
