

Blanco White - Nocturne

Tom: A

Intro: Am Gm C Dm

Cold light of the stars descent
 A flag drew a line in the wind
 If I was awake there's a world that I left
 Never far behind
 From the time that I spent on the Arctic ice

One moon has a name
 Only one to a dreaming host
 But in the night she's ashamed
 Till her drop thorough a darkened
 Sea below beyond the world
 How deep does the water go?

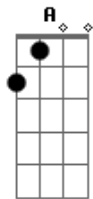

(Am Gm C Dm)

Cold trail of the last ascent
 A cross held a sign in the wind
 And time fell away
 With the sound of each step
 If the stars aligned then
 For us they were meant in the lunar sky

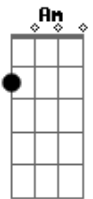

That moon has a name
 In the fires of a silver coast
 And on the ice I'm afraid
 Of the drop through a darkened
 Sea below beyond the world
 How deep does the water go?
