This room has a window that calls
That tells you you've been there before
A sundial in the sky
The only reminder of the days passing by
You, my old solitary friend
For you I would wait 'til the end
Just running down the time
With all of our yesterdays left far behind
Your debts have all been paid
So go on and walk away
I hope out there you'll stay on

G D Em
Where we won't cry no more
(Em G G D Em)

G D Em
The truth turns the needle through north
And trusts us to follow its course
But sometimes it's the lie
That takes the day trembling in all its denial
Now only one ruling is left
When no one believes they'll be next
And trails too far to find
If every damn stranger's got something to hide
But guards are overthrown
The way is wide open for all who'd go
It's never been so close now
And there we won't cry no more
(Em G G D Em)
(Em G G D Em)

G D Em
And there we won't cry no more
G D Em
There we won't cry no more
G D Em
There we won't cry no more
G D Em
There we won't cry no more
