

Blaze Foley - Cold, Cold World

tom:
 D
 I've tried for a long time but I think I can't win
 I could do it all better if I could do it a-gain Wherever I'm going it's the same place I've been Ain't it a cold, cold world
 Outside it was hot but inside I was cold
 The eyes of the young met the eyes of the old
 And what they were thinking I'll never be told
 Ain't it a cold, cold world
 Then an old lady asked me 'bout this new daylight time
 I said it don't matter and she said I don't mind

E A E
 Then the bus driver said you still owe me a dime
 Ain't it a cold, cold world
 E A E
 I can't get no job and I can't get no rest
 I started it out east but I ended it up west
 And I'm so glad to be here I'm sure, I would guess
 Ain't it a cold, cold world
 A E
 ?I might have to leave you?, I think's what she said
 Wish I could sleep ?stead of tossing in bed
 I can't find myself thinking I'd rather be dead
 Cause ain't it a cold, cold world
