Blind Melon - Hell

Tom: E

```
        E          A        Gb                    B
A    G
     I got no fingertips,  they burned away from too many stove trips

        E          A        Gb                    B
A    G
     I've got no fingernails,  I ate em' all cause I was hungry as hell

        E          A          Gb            B  B
A    G      E
     Can't read can't clear my mind,   so here I go, I gotta get into this lifetime

then just start the riff over, play it a couple of times, then start the second verse.
```
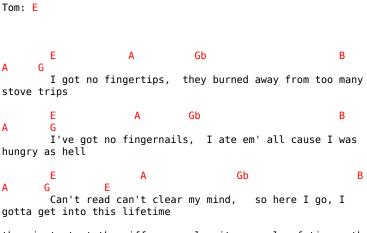

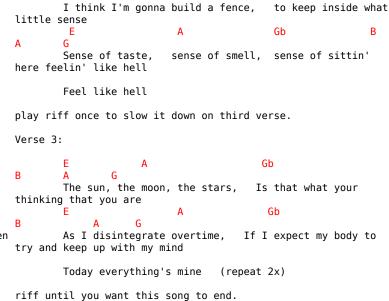

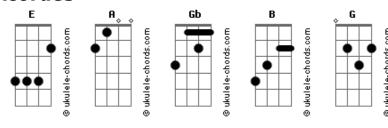

Verse 2:

```
        E                A            Gb
B    A       G
```

```
     I think I'm gonna build a fence,   to keep inside what little sense
        E             A          Gb            B
A    G
     Sense of taste,   sense of smell,  sense of sittin'
here feelin' like hell

     Feel like hell

play riff once to slow it down on third verse.

Verse 3:

```
        E          A                  Gb
B    A     G
     The sun, the moon, the stars,   Is that what your thinking that you are E            A          Gb
B    A     G
     As I disintegrate overtime,   If I expect my body to try and keep up with my mind

     Today everything's mine    (repeat 2x)
```

riff until you want this song to end.
