

Blind Melon - Holyman

Tom: C

Tom :D

Intro: D C D C

D C
I was born on the banks off a hot muddy river
D C
The child of one stupid steamy night
D C
Born to roam beneath the sun
D C D
What do you think of me, I?m better left alone
D C G D C G
Said I met a holy man who said that he knew the way
D C G D F C
And he?d like to show me so my life won't go astray
D C G D C G
Take my hand child now little boy don?t you be afraid
D C G D F C
I?ll take your soul and walk on water
D C D
Holyman, ya don?t understand
C
The cuts on me they run much deeper
D C
Holyman, you righteous man
D C
I?ve been shown the way a thousand times
D D C C D D C C D
Not one a keeper
Older man he said I?ll tell you boy
You?ve planted rotten seeds
And in a land of happiness

They?ll grow us evil trees
Guided minds, and eyes that will never see
Holyman I?ll tell you
Just what it is that I believe
-Chorus-
Holyman I tell you man you gotta
Believe in what you see
'Cause its you that corrupt us man and Deep throat philosophy
I don?t need your spells or the little
Games you try to pull on me
Come to think of it I don?t need your religion
-Chorus-
D D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 C7 D7
I gotta look away
C7 D7 C7 D7 C7 D7 D C D C D
I wish you would understand
Everybody prays
Let me find my own way
-Chorus-
C D
Let me find my own way Holy man
C D
ya don't understand the cuts on me
C D C
they run much deeper Holy man you righteous man
D C
I've been shown the way a thousand times
D C D C
not one a keeper Not one a keeper
D C D C
Not one a keeper Not one a keeper
D C D
Not one a keeper

Acordes

