

Blind Melon - Last Laugh

Tom: G

Shes still waiting to hear you sing a song for her, You jumped from

(intro 2x)

The roof top, because you had to have the last laugh

(verso)

Where are you now, Where are you now, Where are you now

You didnt wake up, Before you hit the ground, I didnt stay up long enough

I heard you say, Everyday above ground was a good one

I want to live so much that I am gunna

To see you falling, You never asked for the world but then you die jumped from

I want to run so fast that I am going to fall

The roof top, because you had to have the last laugh

I probably said it once before I apologize

Look where you are, Look where you are now, Look where you are

This will be the last time, This will be the last time

I heard you say, Everyday above ground was a good one

Where are you now, Where are you now, Where are you now

You never see her, Hair in braids and blue eyes, Because we didnt try hard enough

I heard you say, Everyday above ground was a good one
