

Blind Melon - Pull

Tom: D

surprized that I could not find this tab anywhere on the internet, so I decided to put version out. This is the first tab I have ever written so bear with me. It isn't correct, but its pretty good. At any rate it is still a really fun song to play.

Enjoy Intro:

you'll have to figure out the struming pattern; this is just the order.

verse:

Bm A E

Bm A E E

B Gb A Ething

Ething

E (focusing on bottom strings)

(0'1 just means play 0 and quickly put your finger on 1. I dont know guitar lingo)

You can get by with playing

E E E (E) (E) (E) E E E

where

(E) = E-0-
B-0-
A-1-D-0-
A-0-E-0-

instead of the above, and just play around with it until it sounds more complicated. Neither one is correct, but I get by with it)

Bm A E E
nees held arms open wide shades turn.. colors die

Bm A E E E E
Don't hold to tight to the real its a and it will pull you down

B Gb A Ething

(for the last line, its best to use the E bar chord at the 7th, 2nd, 5th frets)

next verse is the same essentially after Ething do the B Gb A E bar chords and let the E ring out.

Then its

Repeat until you want the song to end, then I play

once or twice
then:

(of course thats not right either, but I lost this version of pull and I can't remember how it sounds. Just fuck around until it suits your taste)
