

Blue October - The Worry List

tom:

Intro: G D Em C

G I'm tired, twisted, barely breathing, buried in the dark I'm a good man?

G Don't be concerned, it's the power of a breaking heart
How good am I hiding it?

G Look, I've got some bad intentions, guilty as fucking charged

Em Still standing stable, more than able 'cause I know who you are

G I know the birthdays, anniversaries, all the first days I missed

I regret them all, but now I know this

C I know that God exists, I held her in my arms

G I never knew I was able to ever feel this strong

C Take me off your worry list, it'll be better that way

I'm doing fine and more there's nothing we haven't talked about

G So, take me off your worry list just "Throw it away"

G Cos she's what my life is about, I might have been gone but I never walked out

(G D Em C)

G I've taken a thousand red eyes to change your point of view

Em What kind of man would take the trust you break and still follow through?

G He'll standin' right here, you may not show up

Em But this same gate 14 where, honestly, I'm just sick of calling your bluff

G And it's just embarrassing, I nearly threw up

Em And I'm trying hard to change the things I always screw up

G And at the top of my list, this visitation's no relationship

C But I gotta make the best of it 'cause I know

C I know that God exists, I held her in my arms

C I never knew I was able to ever feel this strong

C Take me off your worry list, it'll be better that way

G And I'm doin' fine and I've got plenty of friends around

C So take me off your worry list, just throw it away

G 'Cause It's time to stand up on my own for her

D 'Cause I'm packing it up, and I'm comin' today

Em I couldn't wait to finally pick my family up

D Everything is quiet and covered in snow

Em There's something wrong here, nobody's at home... oh, no, no, no

C Now, I'm back in the driver's seat

D Heading back home, yeah back to Texas on my own

C Take me off your worry list, it'll be better that way

G And I'm doin' fine and I've got plenty of friends around

G Yeah, cos' it's time to stand up on my own for her

D I'm packing it up, and I'm comin' today

G This is what my story's about, I might have been gone but I never walked out

C I'm packin' it up, and I'm comin' today

G This is what your story's about, my pretty little girl, can you figure it out?

G If it helps to know so there is no doubt, just listen to the stories not everything is glorious

G Some hurt, some love, some shout, and I fought the world and I lost that bout

G And you are what my album's about, I might have been gone, but I never walked out
