

Blur - Theme From An Imaginary Film

Tom: D

What if I told you I loved you
 What if I court you in rhyme
 In this world there's nothing left
 Well nothing that's new
 What if I told you without you
 Loving is simply a lie
 I'm belching blues into the night
 Oh tell me your mine, please say it's true

 Oh, shame it's over
 I was the last days of them all
 Well, push me over
 I'm flat on my back and I'm having a ball
 And just look who's laughing

 What if I flew like a dove dear
 What if I wooed you in rhyme
 There's nothing left
 Nothing that's good left for me now

Oh, I'll just go and sleep with strangers
 I'll live like a lord in a tower
 Carouse in the sin, take in too much air
 That I can't dream at night
 Well, not anymore

 Oh, shame it's over
 It's been such fun and we've had a ball
 Well, push me over
 But I'll be the last of people to fall
 Well just look who's laughing

 Oh, shame it's over
 How like a cow bloated on grass
 Well, push me over
 Me on my back and you on your arse
 Such a shame it's all over
 There are so few days left to grasp
 Well, push me over
 Me on my back and you on your lazy arse
 Well just look who's laughing
