

B.M - Broken Me

tom:

Bm

Oh growing numb to all the suffering and pain

What's left of all my sanity is held just by a thread

I've been in a war with all the demons in my head

I've fallen yeah

Anxiety is creeping I can feel it come again

Lights are getting dimmer and walls are closing in

Can't you see I'm suffocating more with every breath

Noone sees I'm suffocating more with every breath

A Bm

Hide myself from the world

D G

All of my scars

Blind and deaf to all of your words

Everything that I've been bearing

All the pressure that I carry

I know I know

Em I'll end up on my own

Though I hate to admit I got to
