

Bob Dylan - Girl From The North Country

Tom: G

This song is from Dylan's 1963 album 'The Freewheelin' Bob Dylan'.

Intro: G

If it rolls and flows all down her <sup>C</sup>breast,

Please see for me if her <sup>C</sup>hair hangs <sup>D</sup>long,

In the darkness of my <sup>C</sup>night

Solo

Enjoy!
