

Bob Dylan - One Too Many Mornings

tom:
D

G D
Down the street the dogs are barkin'

B Em
And the day is a-gettin' dark

C G
As the night comes in a-fallin'

G D C Bm D
The dogs 'll lose their bark

G D
An' the silent night will shatter

B Em
From the sounds inside my mind

C G
For I'm one too many mornings

C G C G
And a thousand miles behind

G D
From the crossroads of my doorstep

B Em
My eyes they start to fade

C G
As I turn my head back to the room

G D C Bm D
Where my love and I have laid

G D
An' I gaze back to the street

B Em

The sidewalk and the sign

C G
And I'm one too many mornings

C G C G
An' a thousand miles behind

( G D B Em )
( C G D C )
( Bm D )
( G D B Em )
( C G D C )
( Bm D )

G D
It's a restless hungry feeling

B Em
That don't mean no one no good

C G
When ev'rything I'm a-sayin'

G D C Bm D
You can say it just as good

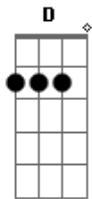

G D
You're right from your side

B Em
I'm right from mine

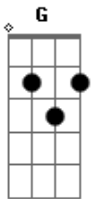

C G
We're both just too many mornings

C G C G
An' a thousand miles behind
