

Bob Dylan - You're No Good

Tom: C

(intro) C F C G

Well I don't know why I love you like I do

Nobody in the world can get along with you.

You got the ways of a devil sleeping in a lion's den

I come home last night you wouldn't even let me in.

Oh sometimes you're as sweet as anybody want to be

When you get a crazy notion, jumpin' all over me

Well you give me the blues I guess you're satisfied

When you give me the blues I wanna lay down and die.

I helped you when you had no shoes on your feet, pretty mama

I helped you when you had no food to eat.

You're the kind of woman I just don't understand

You're takin' all my money and give it to another man.

Well you're the kinda woman makes a man lose his brain

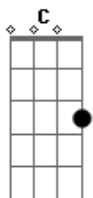

You're the kinda woman drives a man insane

You give me the blues I gess you're satisfied

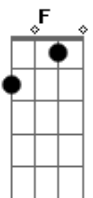

You give me the blues I wanna lay down and die

Well you give me the blues, I wanna lay down and die.
