everytime I call, they tell me that you're soon come
 I call you at your home, they tell me that you're soon come
 I don't like hanging around or to be pushed around

I've got feelings for you know
 I don't like the soon come

I call you on the phone, they tell me that you're soon come
 I even call you at your home, they tell me that you're soon come
 I don't like hanging around or to be pushed around
 I've got feelings for you know
 I don't like the soon come
